Financial Markets

Information :

Course Code : FIN 305

Level : Undergraduate

Course Hours : 3.00- Hours

Department : Finance

Description :

This course is designed to introduce students to the structure, operation, and regulation of modern financial markets. Well-functioning financial markets are essential for the effective allocation and employment of capital. It will consider the mechanisms that have evolved in the equity and debt markets to facilitate this allocation. Students will learn how the money market provides debt claims for short-term money management, how the equity and bond markets provide issuers with long-term financing, how newly created financial assets are introduced through the primary market, and how electronic and floor-based equity markets differ.
