

Title: Women Applications and Entry

Code: FUE-Pol-1004

Purpose

- Allowing women to apply, study and participate in all activities in FUE.

Definitions

- Apply: refers to make formal application or request
- Enrolment: Refers to the formal act of enrolling or state of being enrolled in FUE
- Participation: refers to the action of taking part in FUE activities (examples: attending classes, tutorials, labs, seminars, events, etc.)
- Discrimination: the unjust treatment of different categories of people, especially on the grounds of race, age, gender, or disability.

Statement

- FUE supports the principle of equity in all areas of University life, which is reflected to an increase in the females. Women can participate in women empowerment activities and can occupy positions in FUE such as deanship, vice-presidency, and directorship. The University provides non-discriminatory educational opportunities regardless of social status, gender, religion or disability. FUE rejects all discriminatory acts against female students and staff in admissions. The University has taken, and will continue to take, affirmative action to recruit and advance qualified women, racial and ethnic minorities and individuals with disabilities. All disabled students are provided with the educational opportunity and accessible services with no discrimination to their type of disability.