Area Of Study :

This course is concerned with the development, implementation, and evaluation of marketing management in complex environments. The course deals primarily with a variety of concepts, facts, strategies and techniques. It prepares students to apply marketing concepts to create and sustain customer value. Students learn to prepare marketing plan and solve marketing problems in a collaborative environment. The aim is to develop an appreciation and understanding of the more advanced aspects of marketing management through an analysis of real-world marketing issues, which in turn will allow students to apply these concepts to address problems and opportunities facing Egypt's marketers, both domestically and internationally. Furthermore, The course project will reinforce and integrate the concepts learned in the classroom.

Description :

The purpose of this course is to give students an opportunity to integrate and apply the marketing concepts that have been introduced in other Marketing and Commerce courses: how an organization becomes and stays customer-focused, how an organization develops an effective marketing strategy, how customer-focus and marketing strategy fit together, how to evaluate current marketing strategy and develop a marketing plan.
