

Faculty of Computers and Information Technology

Object Oriented Programming

Information :

Course Code : CSC211

Level : Undergraduate

Course Hours : 3.00- Hours

Department : Faculty of Computers and Information Technology

Description :

The course provides the advanced concepts of solving and programming computing problems on the computer. Topics covered in this course are methods, arrays, conceptual basis of OOP, classes, methods, inheritance, abstraction and polymorphism. Hands-on experience is provided through a series of exercises, assignments and projects.