

Faculty of Commerce & Business Administration

Decision Support Systems

Information :

Course Code : MIS 401

Level : Undergraduate

Course Hours : 3.00- Hours

Department : Management Information Systems

Description :

This course focuses on helping students achieve an understanding of general concepts of DSS. By the end of the course, students should be able to identify the Decision Making Process, identify and discuss the need for computerized support of managerial decision making, provide an understanding of types of DSS, provide an understanding of concepts of Business Intelligence (BI) and data mining, identify Group Decision Support Systems, and learn the major frameworks of computerized decision support systems where real business cases are introduced illustrating important topics of the course and demonstrating relevance to the current practice of DSS.