

Assessing climate change awareness influence on Egyptian children

Sherine El Sakka

Abstract

Climate change is one of the important issues raised lately, with the weakness of climate change awareness in Egypt; Egyptian children face a great risk. Our research will investigate Egypt awareness climate change problem and its effects on Egyptian children.

international journal of business and economic development 2017, July