

Endoscopic removal of an implant from the maxillary sinus: a case report.

Hussein Elsharkawy

Head of Prosthodontics

Abstract

Slippage of an implant into the maxillary sinus is an exceptional complication that may occur during immediate implant placement. In this study, removal of a displaced implant into the maxillary sinus with the aid of endoscopy via buccal window approach is reported. Management of such a rare complication is also addressed

Implant Dent. 2005 Mar ;14 (1):30-5 15764942 - 2005, January

