"Drug Addiction and Marginal Groups in Egypt"

Saleh Soliman Abdel Azim Soliman

part-time Professor

Abstract

The main focus of this research is to study the culture of drug addiction in slum area in Egypt, depending on an empirical analysis. This study ended with many results such as: poverty plays an essential role in drug addiction in addition to low level of education.

The National Center for the Social and Criminal Researches, Cairo, Egypt - 2003, January